EXHIBIT A

5.12. ROLLOVER RIGHTS

Each lender (a “Bridge Lender”) under any of the June 2005 Bridge Loan Agreement, the September 2005 Bridge Loan Agreement, the November 2005 Bridge Loan Agreement and the January 2006 Bridge Loan Agreement (each such term as defined in the Subordination Agreement dated as of January 31, 2006 among the Company and certain lenders (the “January 2006 Subordination Agreement”)) shall have the one-time right (the “Rollover Right”) on the terms provided below, to purchase through the conversion of all or any portion of such Bridge Lender’s outstanding Bridge Loans (as defined below, including principal and accrued and unpaid interest) any Common Stock or securities convertible into Common Stock (collectively, “Common Stock Equivalents”), that the Company may from time to time propose to sell and issue after the date hereof in the first Subsequent Material Offering (as defined below) to occur after the date hereof.

(a) If the Company proposes to issue and sell in one transaction or series of related transactions to unaffiliated, third party investors (other than (i) issuances of options or restricted stock units to employees, consultants or directors, (ii) interest on debt payable in common stock, (iii) pursuant to the conversion of warrants or other convertible securities outstanding on the date hereof, or (iv) sales or issuances of common stock to licensors in connection with bona fide licensing deals), Common Stock and/or Common Stock Equivalents for aggregate gross proceeds to the Company of at least $10,000,000 (inclusive of any conversion of Bridge Loans pursuant to the Rollover Right) (a “Subsequent Material Offering”), the Company shall give each Bridge Lender written notice (a “Subsequent Material Offering Issue Notice”) describing the type and amount of Common Stock and Common Stock Equivalents proposed to be issued and the price and all the material terms upon which the Company proposes to issue such Common Stock and Common Stock Equivalents, specifying a proposed closing date and the principal amount of the Bridge Lender’s outstanding Bridge Loans (and including copies of draft documents to the extent they exist).

(b) Each Bridge Lender may exercise its Rollover Right with respect to such Subsequent Material Offering by written notice to the Company (which notice may specify which Bridge Loans it wishes to rollover, and in the absence of such specification, the Company will choose the Bridge Loans for rollover in order of issuance) given within 7 days after the Bridge Lender shall have received the Subsequent Material Offering Issue Notice describing the Subsequent Material Offering. If the material terms of the actual Subsequent Material Offering differ from those specified in the Subsequent Material Offering Issue Notice, each Bridge Lender shall be given the opportunity change the conversion election they had made under the prior terms (including to elect to convert if they previously did not do so).

(c) The sale of any Common Stock and Common Stock Equivalents to Bridge Lenders pursuant to this Section 5.12 shall be closed on the same terms, pursuant to the same documents, at the same place as, and simultaneously with, the sale of any such Common Stock and/or Common Stock Equivalents to any other purchasers in the Subsequent Material Offering. At such closing the Bridge Lender shall surrender notes being converted and the Company shall issue replacement notes to the extent a note is converted in part.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the Rollover Right provided in this Section 5.12 shall apply solely to the first Subsequent Material Offering occurring after the date hereof.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ACURA PHARMACEUTICALS, INC. SECURES BRIDGE FUNDING

Palatine, IL, August 16, 2006: Acura Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (OTC:BB-ACUR) today announced it has secured gross proceeds of $450,000 under a term loan agreement (the “Loan”) with Essex Woodlands Health Ventures V, L.P., Care Capital Investments II, L.P., Care Capital Offshore Investments II, L.P., Galen Partners III, L.P., Galen Partners International III, L.P. and Galen Employee Fund III, L.P (collectively the “Bridge Lenders”). Coincident with this Loan, the Bridge Lenders have agreed to change the maturity date on all previous bridge loans to October 1, 2006 from September 1, 2006. The Loan bears an annual interest rate of 10%, is secured by a lien on all assets of the Company and its subsidiary, matures on October 1, 2006 and is senior to all other Company debt. The Loan permits the funding of additional cash amounts subject to agreement by the Company and the Bridge Lenders. No assurance can be given, however, that any additional funding will be advanced to the Company under the terms of the Loan. In addition, the Company has agreed that the lenders under its bridge loan agreements may rollover all or any portion of the principal and accrued interest outstanding under loans made under such agreements into the Company’s next equity financing of at least ten million dollars, subject to certain exceptions.

Including the Loan announced today, the Company has a total of $5.6 million in bridge loans outstanding and due on October 1, 2006.

The Company will utilize the net proceeds from the Loan to continue funding product development and licensing activities relating to OxyADF™ tablets and other product candidates utilizing its Aversion® Technology.

Cash Reserves Update

The Company estimates that its current cash reserves, including the net proceeds from the Loan, will fund product development and licensing activities through mid-September, 2006. To continue operating thereafter, the Company must raise additional financing or enter into appropriate collaboration agreements with third parties providing for cash payments to the Company. No assurance can be given that the Company will be successful in obtaining any such financing or in securing collaborative agreements with third parties on acceptable terms, if at all, or if secured, that such financing or collaborative agreements will provide for payments to the Company sufficient to continue funding operations. In the absence of such financing or third-party collaborative agreements, the Company will be required to scale back or terminate operations and/or seek protection under applicable bankruptcy laws.
