ARTICLE I.
STOCKHOLDERS.

SECTION 1. Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of the stockholders shall be held at such time and place within or without the State of New York as the Board of Directors may from time to time designate each year for the purpose of electing directors and of transacting such other business as may properly come before the meeting. The directors shall be chosen by a plurality of the votes at such election.

SECTION 2. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the stockholders may be called by a majority of the members of the Board of Directors or the President and shall be called at any time by the President, any Vice President or the Secretary upon the written request of stockholders owning a majority of the outstanding shares of the Corporation entitled to vote at the meeting, and shall be held at such time and place in the City and State of New York as may be fixed in the call and stated in the notice.

SECTION 3. Notice of Meetings. Notice of each meeting of stockholders shall be in writing and signed by the President or a Vice President or the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary. Such notice shall state the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called and the time when and the place where it is to be held, and copy thereof shall be served or provided, personally, by mail or electronically, upon each stockholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting, and upon each stockholder of record who, by reason of any action proposed at such meeting, would be entitled to have his stock appraised if such action were taken, not less than ten nor more than sixty days before the meeting, provided that if mailed by third class mail it shall be provided not less than twenty four days nor more than sixty days before the meeting, and if transmitted electronically such notice is provided when directed to the stockholder's electronic mail address as supplied by the stockholder to the secretary of the Corporation or as otherwise directed pursuant to the stockholder's authorization or instructions. If mailed, it shall be directed to a stockholder at his address as it appears on the stockbook unless he shall have filed with the Secretary of the Corporation a written request that notices intended for him be mailed to some other address, in which case it shall be mailed to the address designated in such request.

A meeting of stockholders may be held without notice, and any action proper to be taken by the stockholders may be taken thereat, if at any time before or after such action be completed the requirements for notice be waived in writing by all the stockholders of record entitled to notice of such meeting or by their attorneys thereunto authorized.

SECTION 4. Qualification of Voters. Unless otherwise provided in a certificate filed pursuant to law, every stockholder of record of the Corporation shall be entitled at every meeting of the stockholders to one vote for every share of stock standing in his name on the books of the Corporation.

Shares of its own stock belonging to the Corporation at the time of the meeting or at the time a voting record therefor, as hereafter provided, is taken, shares retired before the meeting and no longer deemed to be issued and outstanding at the time of the meeting although outstanding at the time a voting record therefor is taken, and shares issued before the meeting but after a voting record therefor is taken, shall not be voted, directly or indirectly, and shall not be counted in determining a quorum or the number of shares necessary to constitute a quorum or to take any action contemplated, unless otherwise provided by law.

The books and papers containing the list of stockholders shall be produced at any meeting of the stockholders upon the request of any stockholder. If the right to vote at any such meeting shall be challenged, the inspectors of election, or other person presiding thereat, shall require such books to be produced as evidence of the right of the person challenged to vote at such meetings and all persons who may appear from such books to be stockholders of the Corporation entitled to vote may vote at such meeting in person or by proxy, subject to the provisions of the law.

SECTION 5. Determination of Stockholders of Record for Certain Purposes. The Board of Directors may prescribe a period not exceeding forty days prior to any meeting of the stockholders or prior to the last day on which the consent or dissent of stockholders may be effectively expressed for any purpose without a meeting, or prior to the payment of any dividend, or the making of any distribution, or the delivery of evidence of rights or evidences of interests arising out of any change, conversion or exchange of capital stock, during which no transfer of stock on the books of the corporation may be made. In lieu of prohibiting the transfer of stock as aforesaid, the Board of Directors may fix a day and hour, not more than sixty days prior to any such meeting, or to any such last day for the expression of consent or dissent, or to any such dividend payment, distribution or delivery, as the time as of which stockholders entitled to notice of and to vote at such meeting, or to express such consent or dissent or to the receipt of such dividend payment, distribution or delivery, as the case may be, shall be determined, and all persons who were stockholders of record at such time and no others shall be entitled to notice of and to vote at such meeting, to express such consent or dissent, or to the receipt of such dividend payment, distribution or delivery, as the case may be.

SECTION 6. Quorum. The amount of stock which must be represented at a meeting of the stockholders to constitute a quorum, unless otherwise provided by law, shall be a majority of the shares of the Corporation which are entitled to be voted at such meeting, represented by holders of record entitled to vote thereat, present in person or by proxy.

If at any meeting of the stockholders the amount of stock so represented shall not constitute a quorum or shall be less than the amount required by statute to take the action then contemplated, the holders of a majority of the shares of stock so represented may adjourn the meeting from time to time during the period of not more than forty days thereafter, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until the required amount of stock shall be represented at the meeting, when such action may be taken as was contemplated by the notice of the meeting.

SECTION 7. Proxies. Every stockholder of the Corporation entitled to vote at any meeting thereof may vote by proxy. Every proxy must be executed in writing (including by way of electronic transmission) by the stockholder or by his duly authorized attorney. No proxy shall be valid after the expiration of eleven months from the date of execution unless the stockholder executing it shall have specified therein its duration.

SECTION 8. Inspectors of Election. One or more inspectors of election shall be appointed by the Board of Directors to serve at each election of directors by stockholders or in any other case in which inspectors may act. The inspectors so appointed, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, shall be sworn faithfully to execute the duties of inspectors at such meeting with strict impartiality, and according to the best of their ability, and the oath so taken shall be subscribed by them. Thereupon the inspectors shall take charge of the polls and after the balloting shall make a certificate of the result of the vote taken. No director or candidate for the office of director shall be appointed such inspector.

SECTION 9. Stock Certificates. The shares of the Corporation shall be represented by certificates, or shall be uncertificated shares. Each owner of stock of the Corporation shall be entitled to have a certificate, in such form as shall be approved by the Board, certifying the number of shares of stock of the Corporation owned. Such seal may be a facsimile, engraved or printed. Where any such certificate is signed by a transfer agent or transfer clerk, the signatures of any such President, Vice-President, Secretary, Assistant Secretary, Treasurer and Assistant Treasurer upon such certificate may be facsimiles, engraved or printed. In case any such officer who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed upon such certificate shall have ceased to be such before such certificate is issued, it may be issued by the Corporation with the same effect as if such officer had not ceased to be such at the date of its issue.

Every certificate of stock issued by the Corporation shall plainly state upon the face thereof the number, kind and class of shares, including series, if any, which it represents.

SECTION 10. Transfers of Stock. Transfers of shares of stock of the Corporation shall be made on the registry of stockholders of the Corporation only upon authorization by the registered holder thereof, or by an attorney thereunto authorized by power of attorney duly executed and filed with the Secretary or with a transfer agent or transfer clerk, and, if such shares are represented by a certificate, on surrender of the certificate or certificates for such shares properly endorsed, or accompanied by a duly executed stock transfer power and the payment of all taxes thereon. The person in whose names shares of stock shall be listed in the registry of stockholders of the Corporation shall be deemed the owner thereof for all purposes as regards the Corporation.

No share shall be transferable until all previous calls thereon shall have been fully paid in.

SECTION 11. Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Stock Certificates. No certificate for shares of stock of the Corporation shall be issued in place of any certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed, except upon production of such evidence of the loss, theft or destruction, and upon such indemnification of the Corporation and its agents to such extent and in such manner as the Board of Directors may from time to time prescribe.
